

About KAY CARTER

Kay Carter has been using a needle since childhood. Her earliest efforts were embroidered "tea towels" with her grandmother. She began quilting in earnest in the late 80's and loves the whole process. Embellished work is the latest in a long list of favorite pastimes. Kay lives in Staunton with her puppy boys, Harrison and Cooper.